

St. Patrick Council 11207

GK's Newsletter

February 2, 2009

Grand Knight, Thomas Deliduka

My Brother Knights and Spouses,

We're getting back to work after a great deal of time off from having to do anything. We had a successful pizza sale and an unsuccessful free-throw contest.

Free-Throw Contest

I was a bit taken aback by the failure of anyone showing up for the free-throw contest. However, after talking with Dan DeMatte, he said that he could only get flyers to 7th and 8th grade classes because there weren't enough produced and they had a retreat at the parish that day which would have prevented most of them from going. Hopefully next year we'll have a better go of it.

Pizza Sale

Our pizza sale turned out to be a great success! Thank you Jim and Fletcher for all your work! I had my pizzas last night during the "big game" and they were delicious. I look forward to doing this again in May.

Fish Fries and more

Fish Fries start up February 27th and to kill you a bit more, we have a pancake breakfast on March 1st! I know this is ambitious, I am confident we can do this without you all strangling me. At the meeting, we'll need to allocate money for the fish fries and for the pancake breakfast. Thanks to Jim, there will be less to purchase for the breakfast.

Knight & Family of the Month

The Knight of the Month this month is Bob Wolf. Bob was the big volunteer this month helping out at two events. He is also co-chairing the state fundraiser as well. Thanks so much, Bob.

The Family of the month is Jim Gallione's family. Not only did Jim take on something new by doing the food purchasing for the pizza sale, his wife helped the entire time making pizzas. In addition to this, Jim helped out at the free-throw contest event and is co-chairing the state fundraiser with Bob Wolf. Thanks, Jim, for you and your wife's support!

Business Meeting Agenda

We'll be discussing the Fish Fries, pancake breakfast, the financials from the pizza sales and more. If you haven't paid your dues yet, bring them to the meeting. I look forward to seeing some new faces at the meeting.

Hope to see you there!

Fraternally yours in Christ Jesus,
Thomas Deliduka, GK Council 11207